

Dormitory Authority of New York State

SDVBOB Set-Aside

RFI - Architectural, Engineering and Surveying services

Questions and Answers to be posted - Updated as of 10/16/24

Question #	Corresponding RFI Section	Question	Answer
1	Section 4, Question 9	Can a non licensed architect, be the prime with licensed architects and engineers as partners for this RFI?	Firms are required to be licensed in NYS for the desired services. The minimum qualifications will be outlined and described in the future published RFP and Contract.
2	Section 4, Question 9	Are the Architectural partners required to have offices in NYS, regardless if they are licensed in NYS?	Firms are not required to have offices in NYS but they are required to be licensed in NYS for the desired services.
3	Section 4, Question 9	We received two RFIs, that seem very similar but with different deadlines. Are these the same, or should we apply to both? If so, how are they different?	The RFI that is published on the DASNY Website under RFPs & Bids has the correct dates and information.
4	Section 4, Question 9	Are all three disciplines required? Or can we submit for just one discipline?	This information will be outlined and described in the future published RFP.
5	Section 4, Question 9	Is this RFI and work by region?	Yes, DASNY has designated 10 Regions within NY State. Furthermore, these 10 Regions fall within 3 Zones - Downstate, Upstate and Western NY. Additional details regarding this will be outlined in the future published RFP. For reference purposes, please see the follow map.
6	Section 4, Question 9	Are there more details regarding the types of work, size of projects and timeframes?	There is no further information at this time.
7	Section 4, Question 9	Is there is a set standard format for the RFP response?	This information will be outlined and described in the future published RFP.

8	Section 4, Question 9	For this up and coming RFI, would the submittal require only section 4 (Response Items) to be answered? Is the response then submitted via email to you directly (at the upstaterfpcoordinator@dasny.org)?	Yes, you only have to respond to Section 4. Please send all questions regarding this RFI to upstaterfpcoordinator@dasny.org
---	-----------------------	--	--